PRESENT: THE HONORABLE VALERIE P. COOKE, U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE

DEPUTY CLERK: LISA MANN REPORTER: NONE APPEARING

COUNSEL FOR PLAINTIFF(S): NONE APPEARING

COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANT(S): NONE APPEARING

MINUTE ORDER IN CHAMBERS:

Before the court is plaintiff's motion to strike defendants' motion for summary judgment, or alternatively, to enlarge time to respond to same (#168). Defendants opposed the motion (#173), and plaintiff replied (#179).

The court granted defendants' motion for an enlargement of time to file a dispositive motion on September 17, 2015 (#134). Plaintiff's moves to strike defendants' motion for summary judgment because it was filed a day late on September 18, 2015 (#156). Defendants contend in their opposition that they are afforded a three-day grace period pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 6(d) for service of the court's order (#173). Defendants are absolutely mistaken in this belief. A deadline set by the court is, in fact, an actual deadline. No grace period is allowed for service on a deadline set by the court. Nevertheless, the court will grant defendants an extension of time nunc pro tunc to September 18, 2015 to file their motion for summary judgment. Therefore, defendants' motion for summary judgment (#156) is considered timely filed, and plaintiff's motion to strike (#168) is DENIED.

Plaintiff's motions for extension of time to file an opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment (#s 168, 178, & 181) are GRANTED. Plaintiff shall have to and including Friday, January 15, 2016 to file an opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment.

Plaintiff's motion for court order for Clerk to provide plaintiff a copy of all plaintiff's motions, responses, replies and other filings in lieu of enlargement of copywork debt limit (#174) is DENIED. It is not the court's obligation to provide litigants, even indigent ones, with copy services. The clerk shall not provide copies.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
